

100th Infantry Battalion Legacy Organization and Frances Okazaki Memorial Scholarships
2020-2021 Information Sheet
Perpetuating the Legacy of the 100th Infantry Battalion (Separate)

These scholarships will be awarded to deserving students, who are recognized not only for excellence in academics and community service, but also for their pursuit in promoting the legacy of the 100th Infantry Battalion (Separate) so that others will value freedom, loyalty, patriotism and trust. One Legacy Organization award will be for $1,000 in honor of Mr. Kazuo Yamane. The Okazaki Memorial Scholarship was endowed by a woman whose plans for a mainland college education were ended by the start of World War II.

Qualifications:

To qualify an applicant must be a graduating, high school senior from the state of Hawaii who will attend an institution of higher learning in the Fall of 2021.

Applicants of the 100th Infantry Battalion Memorial Scholarship may apply. If a student receives a scholarship from the 100th Infantry Battalion Memorial Scholarship he/she will not be eligible for the 100th Infantry Battalion Legacy Organization Scholarships. Past recipients of scholarships from the 100th Infantry Battalion Veteran's Organization or the 100th Infantry Battalion Legacy Organization are ineligible. Questions of eligibility should be directed to Attention IBLO Scholarship committee via e-mail.

Instructions:

1. Submit your signed application form by April 12, 2019
2. Submit an official high school transcript.
3. Submit two letters of recommendation. One letter must be from a teacher. The other letter must come from a community leader such as a non-profit agency supervisor, an employer, or a volunteer supervisor, etc.
4. Type or print the requested information in black ink.
5. Do not attach or include anything that is not requested such as a photo or non-related essays or materials.
6. Do not submit items which you want returned. All application materials are confidential and nothing will be returned.
7. If the student plans to attend a mainland school, they must indicate their interest in being considered for the Okazaki Scholarship on the application form.

Application materials must be received by April 12, 2021. Send materials to:

100th Infantry Battalion Legacy Organization
OIBLO Scholarship Committee
520 Kamoku Street
Honolulu, Hawaii 96826

Contact: Attention OIBLO Scholarship Committee E-mail: charlottayama@gmail.com