

Honoka'a High & Intermediate School
School Community Council Minutes
December 4, 2018

Call to Order at 5:20 p.m.

Present: T. Picklesimer, Johnalyn Margheim, Jamielyn Margheim, S. Wood

Principal's Report:

Vice Principal Picklesimer reported that the school's old library named College and Career Center would be remodeled. All of the books will be given to teachers, staff and local library. There are plans to have this room look similar to local college centers.

It was also reported that the projected student enrollment for the next school year 2019-20 has reduced drastically. Because of the decline, the school's budget will be directly impacted.

Old Business: No report

New Business:

Several ideas were tossed around regarding the impact of student decline and how social marketing and other targeted activities may help the school.

Public Testimony: None
